October 23rd, 2026

To: U.S. CertainTeed Architectural Customers

Dear Valued Customer,

Due to the continued impacts of inflation and increases in raw material and freight costs, CertainTeed Architectural will implement a price increase on shipments effective November 23, 2026, across the following product categories:

- All grid products, including accessories: Up to 10%
- All panel products: Up to 10%
- All specialty products, including accessories: Up to 8%

To help maintain consistent product availability, shipments may be managed as necessary.

We appreciate your continued business and partnership and thank you for your ongoing support of CertainTeed Architectural.

Sincerely,

CertainTeed Architectural
